

Minutes from January 17, 2013

The November minutes were read and approved without changes or corrections by the members.

Treasurer:

- The treasurer's report stated we have $751 in our savings.

President:

- The President reported that her husband fell and was unable to attend the meeting.

Secretary:

- The Secretary said she will decorate the center area for Valentine's day the change the decorations for St. Patrick's day in March. Live plants will go in after the last frost.

Webmaster:

- The Webmaster reported that our website is up for renewal. A vote was taken and membership approved the expenditure, pending approval of the Treasurer who was not able to attend the meeting.

Old Business:

- The trouble spot at 107 Greenhurst is now empty and the landlord is fixing up the house.
- No recent problems with the 101 Carmon home.

New Business:

- No new business brought up.

Guests:

- We had 7 members and one guest.
- Lt. William Bense is filling in for Capt. Decker who has officially retired, but may return part-time.
- Lt. Bense reviewed the calls in Greenhurst during Dec.-Jan. and stated there has been an increase in burglaries. The primary entry is from garage doors or kitchen windows.
- There was also a rise in theft from autos. He reminded the members to lock doors and windows and to not leave valuables in the car.
- He also reminded us of the importance of recording the serial numbers and model numbers of the electronic gear in case they end up in a pawn shop.
- He also reported that Detective Smith was following up on the thefts which occurred at the Deal residence.

Next Meeting:

- The members were reminded of the next meeting on Feb.21, 2013.